Saturday, March 9. 1706.

London, March 9.

HER Majesty having been graciously pleas'd, by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, to appoint Commissioners to receive Subscriptions for a Loan of 250000 Pounds to be made to the Emperor, for Support of the Army under his Highness Prince Eugene in Italy, and payable to his Order, upon an undoubted Security given by his Imperial Majesty, and the States of Silesia, for Repayment of the same in Six Years, with Interest, after the Rate of 8 per Cent. per Annum; The said Commissioners caus'd a Subscription Book to be open'd for that Purpose at Mercer's-Hall in Cheap-side, on Thursday last the 7th Instant: And his Royal Highness the Prince, the Duke of Marlborough, My Lord High Treasurer, the Earl of Portland, and divers others of the Nobility, &c. having subscrib'd considerable Sums, there was subscrib'd in all last Night above 180000 Pounds. Her Majesty's said Letters Patents are as follows.

ANNE, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting. Whereas Our Good Brother, the Emperor of Germany, hath Represented unto Us, That he finds it highly Necessary, for the more Vigorous and Effectual carrying on the War against the French King in Italy, that a considerable Additional Reinforcement of Men be made: And for Enabling his Army to Act Vigorously against the French Forces; and for the Effectual Relief of the Duke of Savoy; a Supply of Money, not less than Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, should be provided with all possible Expedition, and sent to Prince Eugene of Savoy, General and Commander in Chief of all the Forces of Our said Good Brother, and Our Allies employed in those Parts. And his Imperial Majesty having likewise given Us to understand, That he is willing to give Undoubted Security for the said Sum, by Engaging his Lands, Rents and Revenues whatsoever, within the Province of Silesia, and also the Security of the States of that Province, to such Persons as shall be willing to Advance the said Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds Sterling, at an Interest after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum: And hath therefore given Authority and Instructions, to his Minister residing in England, to Propose the Borrowing thereof from any of Our Loving Subjects, within this Our Kingdom, upon the said Security, and upon Condition to be Repaid the Principal Money that shall be Lent, and the Interest that shall grow due thereupon, at such Times, and in such Manner, as are specified and contained in a Book provided for Taking Subscriptions for Lending the said Moneys. And whereas We, together with the States General of the United Provinces, have Resolved, and Agreed, to furnish the said Additional Forces, and a considerable Sum of Money, for the Assistance of his Imperial Majesty in Italy, as aforesaid: And whereas for making the said Forces in Italy useful, to the Great End they are design'd, the aforesaid Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds being Absolutely Necessary, We are perswaded that divers of Our Loving Subjects, when they consider of what Importance the Supply of the said Money, for Carrying on the War in Italy with Effect, may be, not only to his Imperial Majesty, but to the Common Cause, in which We, together with the States General, and other Our Allies, are Engaged, will be moved to Contribute to Advance the said Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, upon the Security aforesaid: Wherefore, at the Request of Our said Good Brother, We have thought fit, most Earnestly to Recommend to Our said Loving Subjects the Speedy Making of the said Loan, as a Matter which will be most Acceptable to Us, and likely to be of the Greatest Advantage to the Affairs of the War in General: And accordingly We do, by these Presents, Recommend unto all Our Loving Subjects, and do hereby Authorize you, Speedily to make the said Loan of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, upon the Security above-mentioned: And do hereby Assure all, and every Our Loving Subjects, who do, or shall, Advance or Lend the said Sum, or any Part thereof, on the Credit aforesaid, That We shall and will, from Time to Time, by Our Minister at the Imperial Court, and otherwise, take all possible Care, that the Principal Money, and also the Interest thereof, shall be punctually Paid, by Our said Good Brother, at the Times, and in the Manner, expressed in the Agreement, to be made on the Part of his said Imperial Majesty. And We have Constituted and Appointed, and by these Presents do Constitute and Appoint, Our Trusty and Well-beloved, Sir William Hodges, Sir John Buckworth, Sir Thomas Webster, Baronets; Sir Robert Clayton, Sir William Ashurst, Sir John Houlton, Sir Thomas Abney, Sir William Gore, Sir Owen Buckingham, Sir Gilbert Heathcote, Sir Joseph Wolfe, Sir Charles Thorold, Sir Samuel Stanier, Knights and Aldermen of Our City of London, Sir Stephen Evans, Sir Henry Furnese, Sir William Scawen, Sir Theodore Janssen, Sir Isaac Rebow, Sir James Bateman, Sir Edmund Harrison, Knights; Samuel Shephard, John Ward, Abraham Houlton, Francis Eyles, George Dodington, Nathaniel Gould, James Craggs, Philip Papillou, Samuel Heathcote, Peter Ducane, Joseph Haskin-Styles, John Morgan, William Desbouverie, Robert Raworth, Thomas Hall, John Smith of Beauford-Buildings, Henry Cornish, Thomas Scawen, Peter Delme, James Milner, Stephen Seignorer, Justus Beck, Roger Hudson, Abraham Beake, Charles Peers, Daniel Hays, Dennis Dury, Alexander Chairnes, Matthew Raper, Jacob Jacobson, Josiah Diston, John Girardot, John Stone, Francis Edwards, Edward Haistwell, Capell Ward, and William Brown, Esquires;

Esquires; or any Five or more of them, to be Takers for Taking the said Loan; and for Managing the Returns thereof to Prince Eugene of Savoy in Italy; and for Taking the Security, for the Payment of the Principal and Interest of the said Sum of Two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, so to be Advanced as aforesaid. In Witness whereof, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patents.
